

Be more productive with Inbox for JIRA in-app notifications

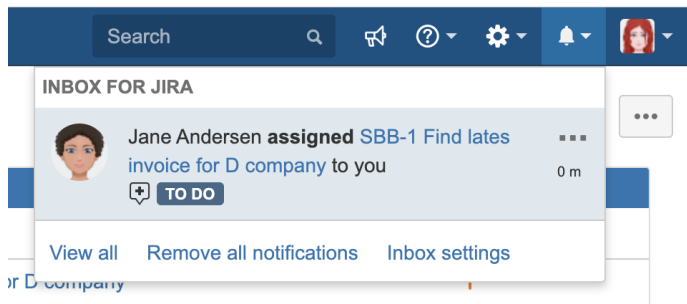

Are you switching between your mailbox and JIRA to keep up to date with what is happening?

Are you feeling that important issues are some times missed out?

Time to change that!

According to different studies, context switching can eat up to 40-80% of your productive time!!!

With Inbox for JIRA you can increase your productivity and remove the barriers by adding in-app notifications!

Inbox is located next to your avatar and is shown as a bell.

Get it today at Atlassian Marketplace Inbox for JIRA
